

Walla Walla Kennel Club Lifetime Membership Guidelines

Awarded to a member of the Club who through their actions and conduct promotes the interests of the Club and purebred dogs and serves the broader community for an extended period of time.

Guidelines For Eligibility:

To be eligible for lifetime membership, the member must have been a member in good standing for a minimum of 20 years with the Club.

In addition, the member must have served the Club as a Club officer or a committee chair during this time.

Lifetime members do not have to pay dues to the Walla Walla Kennel Club and will continue to receive the monthly Newsletter.

December 2009